

MA Professional Development (PD) Reflections Rubric

Student's name _____

Advisor's name _____

Date _____

Please mark or highlight the appropriate boxes for your evaluation.

Criterion	Poor	Fair	Good	Excellent
Content	Little to no specific details of professional activities are provided.	Some specific details of professional activities are provided.	Specific details of professional activities are provided in most reflections.	Specific details of professional activities are consistently provided in all reflections.
Analysis	The reflections reveal little ability to evaluate what was observed or engaged in.	The reflections reveal a developing ability to evaluate what was observed or engaged in.	Most of the reflections clearly demonstrate ability to evaluate what was observed or engaged in.	All the reflections clearly demonstrate a strong ability to evaluate what was observed or engaged in.
Relationship between professional development activity and personal learning	The reflections show little to no evidence of learning from engagement with professional activities; connections are weak or non-existent between PD activities and current or future professional endeavors.	The reflections generally show some evidence of learning from engagement with professional activities; some attempt is made to connect PD activities and current or future professional endeavors.	Most of the reflections show clear evidence of learning from engagement with professional activities; connections between PD activities and current or future professional endeavors are usually explicit.	All the reflections show clear evidence of learning from engagement with professional activities; explicit connections between PD activities and current or future professional endeavors are consistently made.
Writing quality	The reflections are poorly written and/or organized descriptive summaries and evaluative responses.	The reflections are adequately written and organized descriptive summaries and evaluative responses, but have frequent stylistic infelicities.	The reflections are generally well written and well organized descriptive summaries and evaluative responses, with occasional stylistic infelicities.	All the reflections are well written and well organized descriptive summaries and evaluative responses, with few if any stylistic infelicities.